A. G. Spalding & Bros.
Athletic Goods
A.G. SPALDING.
President

Treasures of Major League Baseball—Part 1 (The 19th Century)

Diagram
Showing the American Origin of
The National Game of Base Ball.
By A.G. Spalding

Heavy Caption type + Antique
Body in Caption Block
to Dia - theam type -

Old Red Stockings (Cincinnati) 1869

Won all Games Played Season of 1869

1 C. A. McVey R.F. 2 C. H. Gould 1st B. 3 Harry Wright Capt. & C.F. 4 G. Wright S.S. 5 F. Waterman 3d B.

6 A. G. Spalding L.F. 7 D. Allison C. 8 A. Brainard R. 9 C. Sweasy 2d B.

Washington 1869

MLR 07 01

527 Penn. Avenue, Washington D. C.

The American Origin of Base Ball

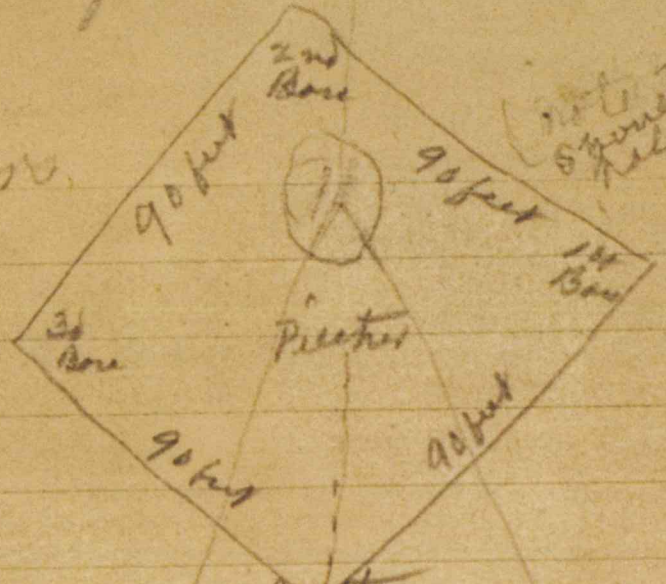
Base Ball.

~~Base Ball of Description~~



Base Ball

Town Ball, frequently played at Town meetings
1-Batter, Number of Players unlimited, usually 10 to 20 on each side

New England Game of Round Ball, afterwards ~~called~~ in Massachusetts Game of Base Ball, Batter & with some minor changes when

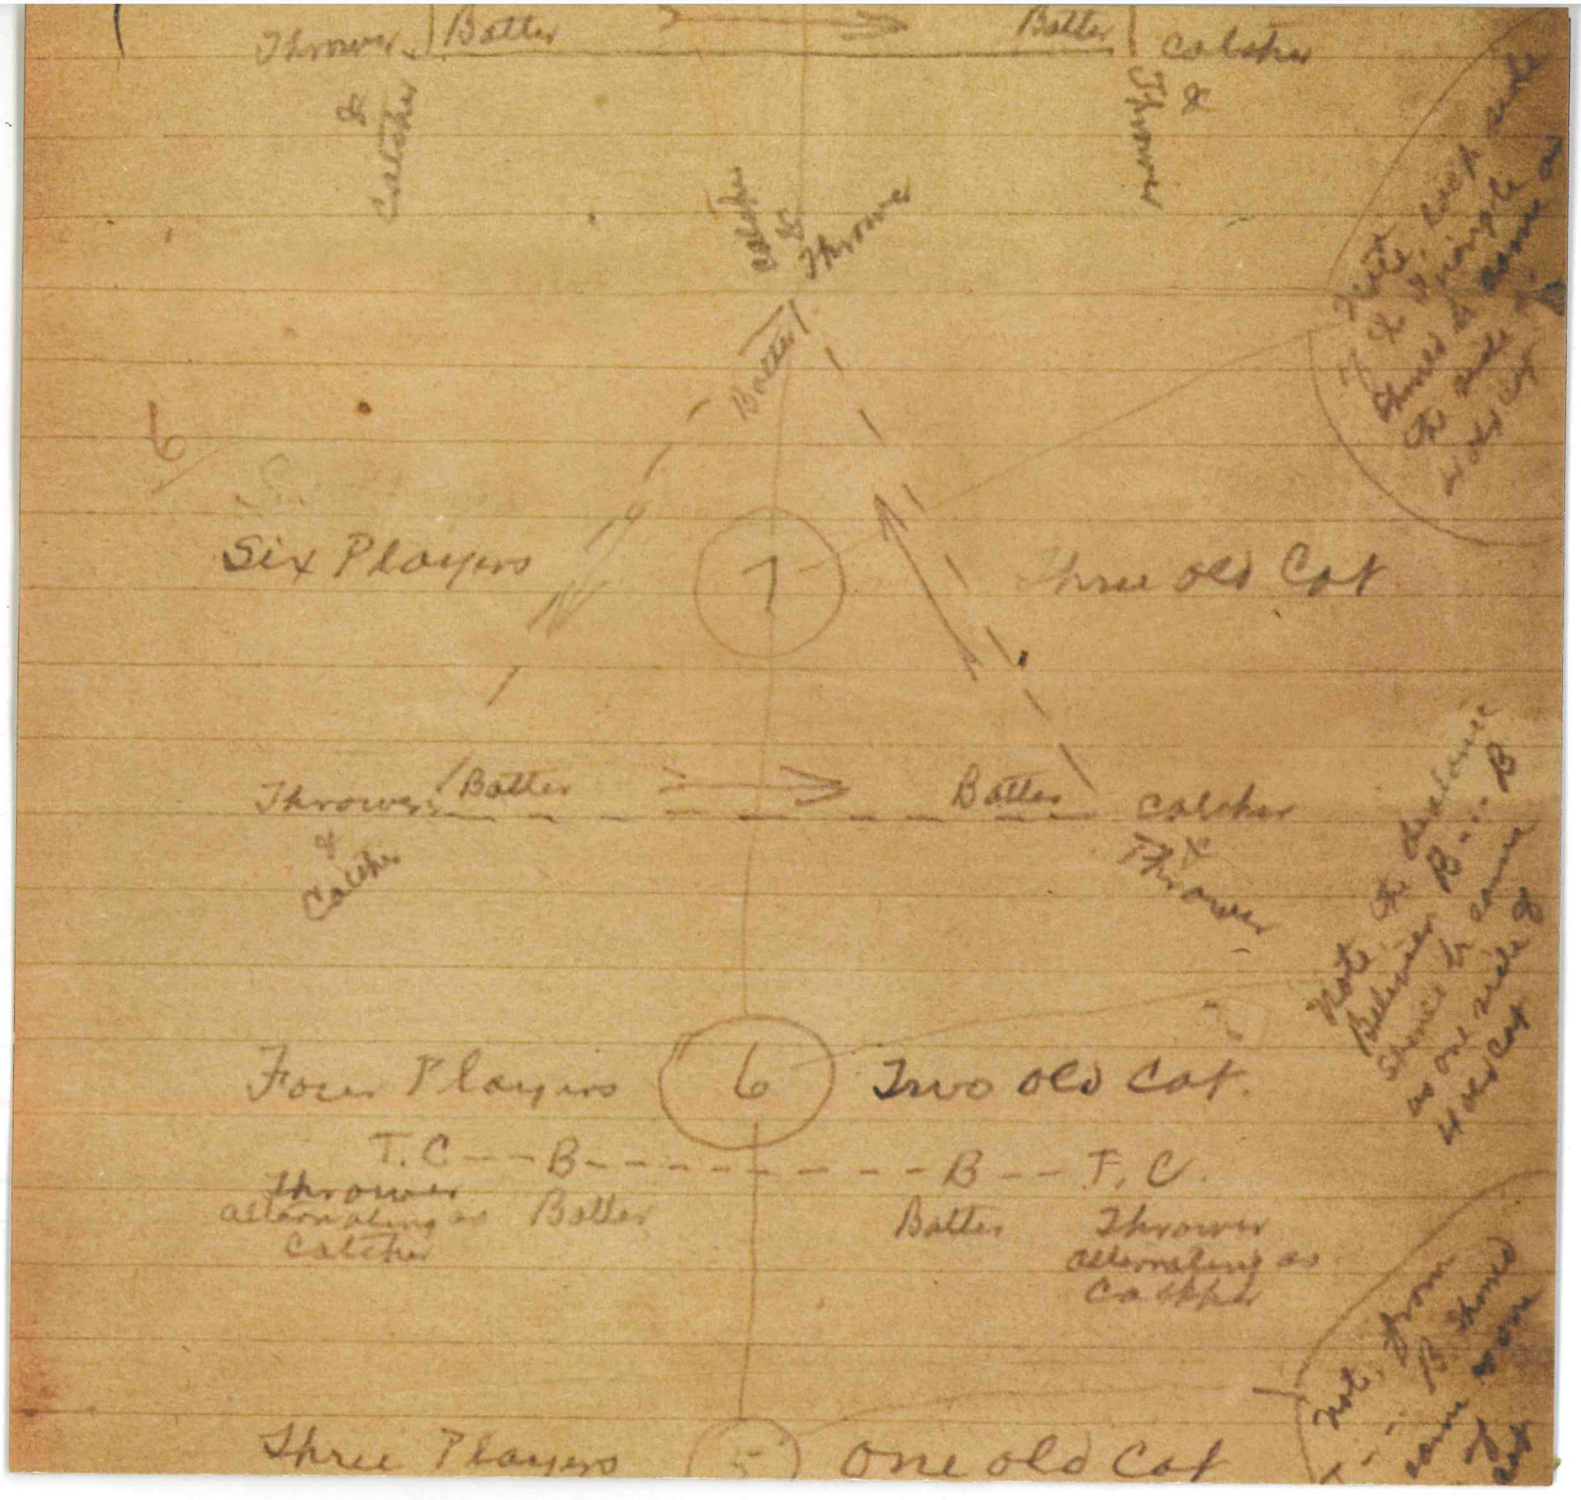
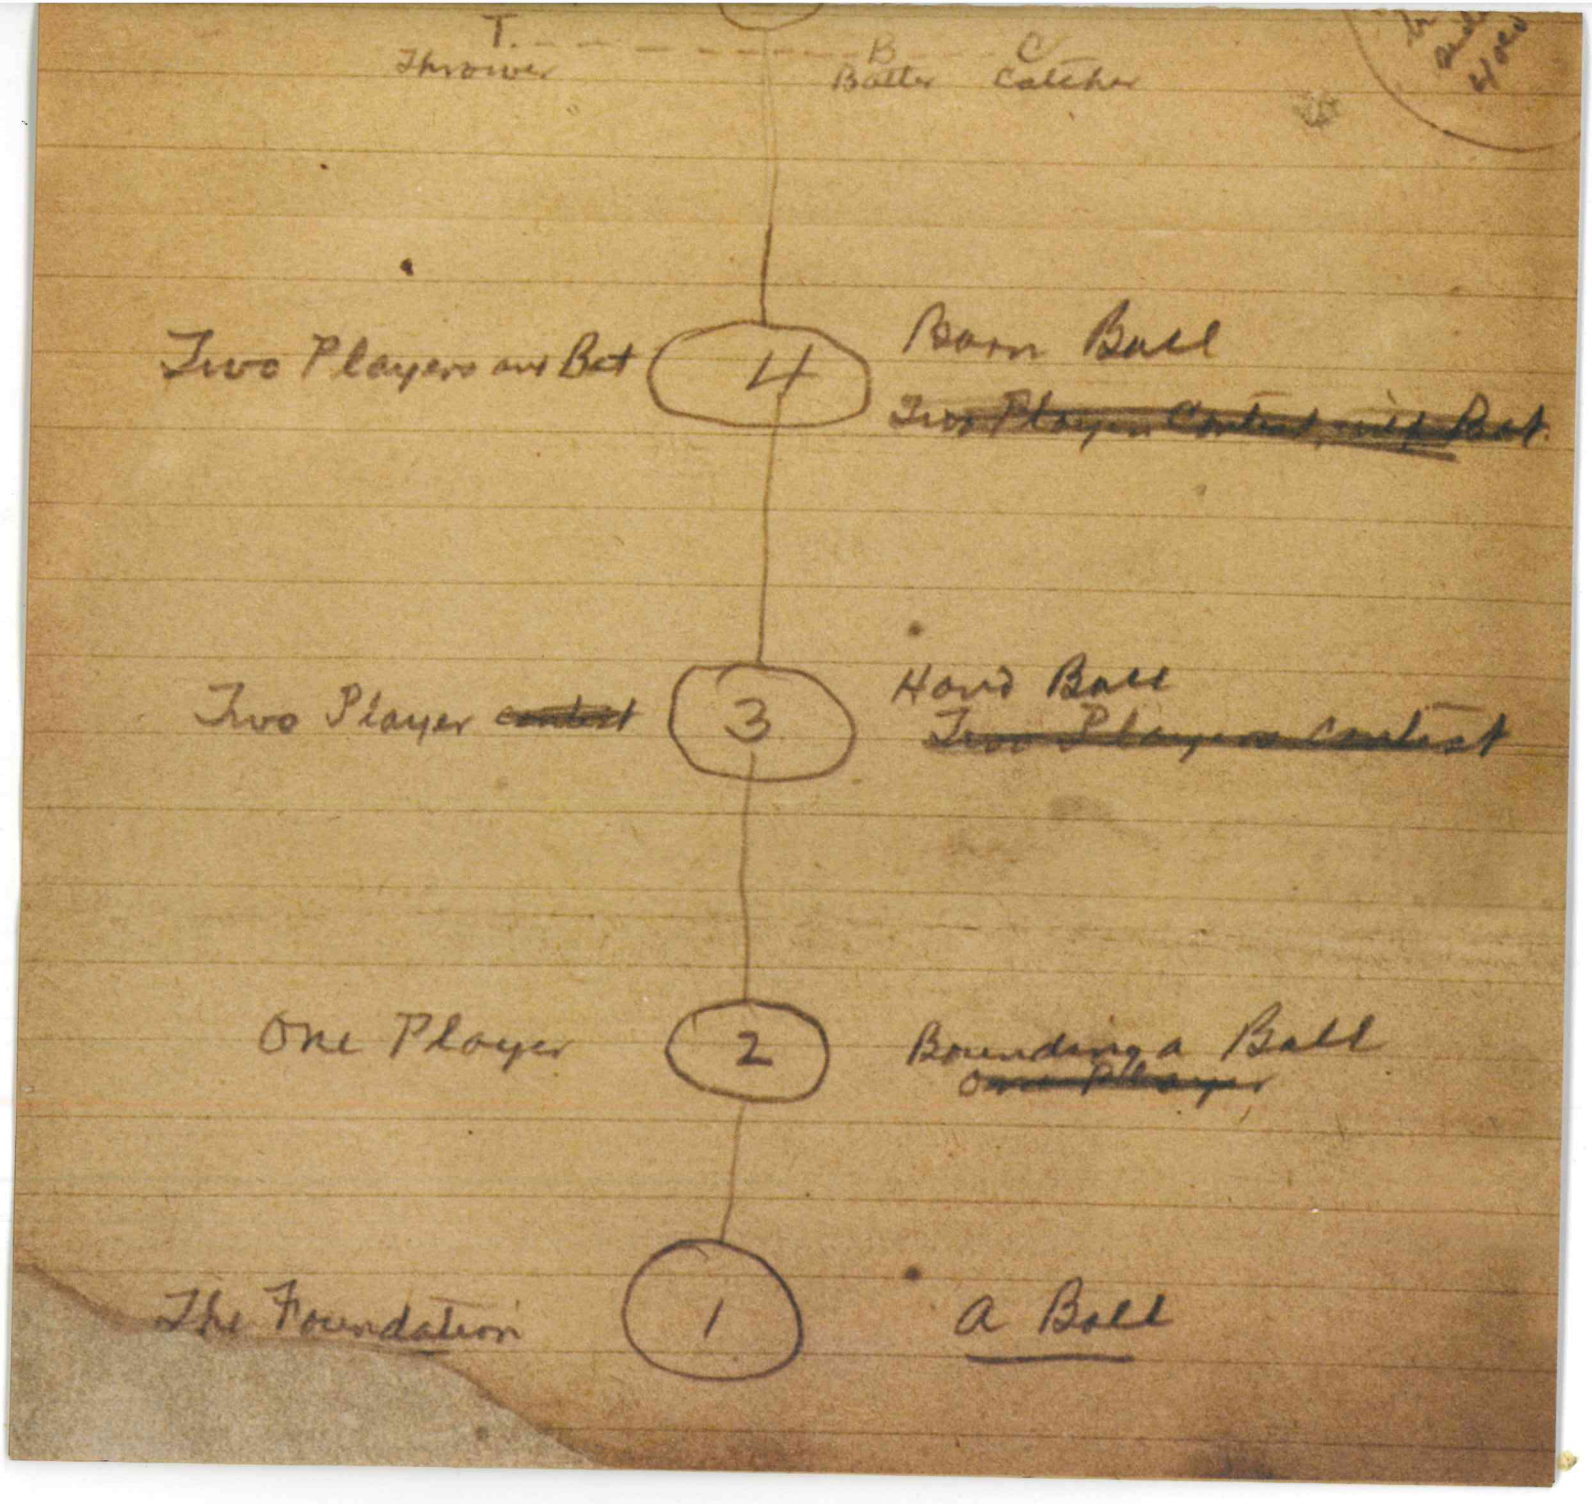
3rd Goal
60 feet
2nd Goal
9
9 Players
60 feet
60 feet
4th Goal
1st Goal
Batter
Catcher
10 to 14 Players
3d Post
46 ft. high
60 feet
2nd Post
46 ft. high
10
Thrower
60 ft
60 ft
Post
Batter
Catcher
8
8 Players
Batter
Batter
Thrower
Thrower
Catcher
Catcher
Note
Ground
Ground
Ground



Thrower & Catcher
Batter
Batter
Catcher & Thrower
Batter
Six Players
7
Three old Cat
Thrower & Catcher
Batter
Batter
Catcher & Thrower
Four Players
6
Two old Cat.
T. C
Thrower alternating as Catcher
B
Batter
B
Batter
T. C.
Thrower alternating as Catcher
Three Players
5
One old Cat



T.
Thrower
B
Batter
C
Catcher
Two Players and Bat
4
Base Ball
Two Players Contest with Bat
Two Player contest
3
Hand Ball
Two Players contest
One Player
2
Bounding a Ball
One player
The Foundation
1
a Ball